Aims and activities of the organisation	Our team has been creating theatre performances and cultural programmes since 2017. In the last 8 years we have created ten theatre performances, two classroom performances. We have presented guest performances at several national festivals. Last year, 33 of our 33 performances were seen by 3542 spectators. We have also performed as guest performers in 10 rural towns. We have held stream performances. After our performances, we often organise workshops and round-table discussions. Our performances in Budapest's most important independent theatre venues have been followed by a serious and appreciative critical response in recent years. Our most recent presentation is about the Hungarian child protection system. The script of the performance was compiled from interviews.
